Dan & Debbie Barkley — Chile, South America

April-June 2007

“And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams.”

Acts 2:17

God continues to move in Chile, also known as “The Shoelace Country.” From the north in Antofogasta to Santiago in the center to Punta Arenas in the south God is delivering the captives, finding the lost and blessing His people. He is faithful!

One of our newest churches, located in Antofogasta, is experiencing revival. There are now approximately forty people attending the United Pentecostal Church of Antofogasta. This group has obtained a beautiful building which seats close to three-hundred. Glory to God!

Brother Daniel Firmani, president of the work in Chile and pastor of the church in Concepción/Talcauano, reports that their present building is no longer big enough to hold all the people. They are now holding two services every Sunday in order to accomodate all the people. God is moving!

Brother Firmani is pictured here at a recent baptismal service in which he baptized four ladies. The church in Conepción has outgrown their building and is now having two services in order to accomodate all the peolpe

My wife and I would like to thank everyone who sent cards or e-mails and prayed for us during the recent loss of Debbie's brother, David Legg. Your concern, love and prayers have been and continue to be a source of strength to the family. Please continue to pray especially for Debbie's parents as well as David's daughters and wife. This has been very hard for them.

Thank you for your faithful support. Only eternity will reveal the true extent of your generosity. God bless you.

Yours for such a time as this,

Dan & Debbie Barkley
